Living in Los Boliches means more than just owning a property—it's about enjoying one of Fuengirola's most desirable and authentic neighborhoods. Once a traditional fishing village, today it combines Andalusian charm with modern convenience. Residents benefit from a Blue Flag beach just steps away, lively markets, traditional tapas bars, and cultural festivals that fill the streets with music, color, and energy. Excellent transport links, including the direct train to Málaga and the airport, make it both accessible and highly sought after by buyers and renters alike.
