Imagine waking up every morning with the Mediterranean as your backdrop?

This magnificent townhouse, located in the sought-after Calahonda urbanisation, has been completely renovated and is ready to move into.

Refurbished from top to bottom with exceptional attention to detail, it combines authentic Andalusian charm with high-quality contemporary finishes. Features include elegant marble flooring, a sleek handleless designer kitchen with stone countertops, a cosy fireplace in the open-plan living area, and air conditioning throughout all levels to ensure year-round comfort.

Offering approximately 180 m² of built space, the property boasts a spacious and practical layout with four bedrooms and three full bathrooms. Particular highlights include the impressive 26 m² master suite, as well as a charming attic bedroom featuring its own bathroom, office space, sea-view terrace and private balcony, creating a unique and character-filled retreat.

The community offers a peaceful, international and impeccably maintained environment, complete with attractive communal areas and a swimming pool. The location is hard to beat: just 15 minutes from Marbella, 25 minutes from Málaga Airport, less than 1 km from the prestigious Cabopino Golf Course, and only moments away from a wide selection of beaches, restaurants, shops and everyday amenities.

Whether you are looking for a permanent residence, an exclusive holiday home or a solid investment opportunity on the Costa del Sol, this property offers everything needed to make an outstanding choice.

The best properties do not stay on the market for long. Contact us today and experience for yourself everything this exceptional home has to offer.
