Set in La Quinta, this bright and thoughtfully designed apartment combines open views, natural light, and generous outdoor living spaces. The community is well maintained and offers residents access to a large swimming pool, gym, and private parking.

The apartment features three spacious bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, with a layout designed to feel easy and connected throughout. The master bedroom opens onto a private balcony, creating a quiet spot to start the day, while the main living area flows directly onto another terrace that brings in light and extends the space outdoors.

The rooftop terrace is what truly defines the home. With wide views across La Quinta, the Mediterranean, and the surrounding mountains, it becomes an extension of everyday living. There is ample space for dining, lounging, and entertaining, making it a setting that naturally draws people outside throughout the year.
